

Recognising the Outstanding Young Professionals of the Australian Cold Chain

This prestigious award, now in its 30th year, provides a unique opportunity for employers to acknowledge the contributions and talents of outstanding future leaders in the Australian Cold Chain.

The 2024 Frank Vale Award Winner will be announced at the RWTA 82nd National Conference and Exhibition in August 2024 at RACV Cape Schanck, Victoria.

Participation in the Frank Vale Award is a rewarding experience.

Previous Frank Vale Award candidates speak of the great sense of personal pride they experienced, upon learning that their employer had nominated them for this acclaimed Industry Award.

2023 Winner: Stacey Cook

"Future aspiring cold chain logistic professionals need to know the Frank Vale award experience is not just about the process described in the entrant criteria. The opportunity to grow, learn and challenge yourself on every level has been an incredible opportunity. Through this award, and the programs held by the RWTA, I have built relationships likeminded industry professionals who are passionate, informed and open to sharing ideas to collaborate on industry challenges and growth potential. I encourage anyone who is passionate about our industry to get involved and challenge yourself."

2022 Winner: Mark Jackson

"The Frank Vale Award and RWTA conference was a great highlight in my career. I really enjoyed the process end to end; the experience and development was truly invaluable. The RWTA support throughout and networks I have now had opened, will stay with me long term while I continue my own path within cold chain. An experience I will never forget!"

2021 Winner: Liam Neilly

"It was exciting to be nominated by my company, Lineage Logistics to compete in the prestigious Frank Vale Award. Strongly supported by the RWTA Board and Members, I am thankful to ASKIN Performance Panels for their sponsorship of this incredible opportunity. There is a thorough process followed to gain insight into each applicant's leadership perception, culminating in the Award being announced at the Gala Dinner at the Conference. Opening opportunities and gaining both recognition and visibility in the Australian Cold Chain precedes the next step to competing Internationally. What a year!"

Employers acknowledge that nominating a young employee for this award, results in numerous worthwhile benefits for their company.

Rewards for Those Who Dare
